Dear Students

MRADCH has set out a National Conference for Undergraduate Dental Students to enhance the core clinical skills of UG dental students and shine a light on the latest developments of dentistry.

The objective of this conference is to bring a change in the conventional learning patterns for undergraduate dental students by providing them with advanced level exposure in the dentistry field as most conferences in the stream of dentistry are usually held for post-graduate students and private practitioners, which their undergraduate counterparts usually miss out on. The conference which spans for 2 days on virtual platform has a plethora of events such as keynote lectures delivered by eminent professionals hailing from the field of dentistry. In order to cultivate the habit of research and instill innovative thinking amongst dental students, a Poster and Paper presentation competition has been scheduled. Lastly, a quiz competition comprising a prelim and a final round will also be organized with questions revolving around general dentistry. We welcome you all for this scientific extravaganza.
